The Class

DANCING SNOWFLAKES

(Melody: Shoo Fly)

Dancing Snowflakes keeps the winter season going strong in song! "Snowflakes are falling down. Snowflakes are falling down. Snowflakes are falling down. I see snowflakes on the ground. Here comes the winter wind. Just listen to that sound. It blows and blows so hard. The snow will twirl around." Children act out the snowflakes twirling, spinning and dancing and finally lying down on the ground, resting quietly. The wind is quiet now too.
Skill areas include language development, gross motor skills, listening skills and social interaction.
